Innovation and inspiration

We are proud of the horticultural sector in the Netherlands. On entrepreneurship, innovations and collaborations. In the stands, but also during interactive knowledge sessions, demonstrations and workshops, you will discover what makes our small country great in the horticultural world.

Strengthen and expand relationships

During this trade fair you strengthen existing contacts and lay the foundation for new ones. You meet on average 500 leading companies from the sector.

(Inter)national appeal

The attraction of HortiContact to foreign companies is growing. In recent years, exhibitors and visitors from, among others, Europe, North and Central America have already entered the fair. Are you ready to push your business boundaries?
